

APR 26 1958

ROANOKE Approved For Release 2000/08/26 : CIA-RDP75-00001R000400330020-6
 TIMES

MORNING 53,240
 SUNDAY 90,664

APR 26 1958

STATINTL

Soviet Russia To Be 'Examined' at Hollins Seminar

"An Examination of Soviet Russia" is the theme of a Hollins Conservative Society seminar to be held Friday and Saturday (April 26 and 27) at the college.

The symposium will feature three speakers prominent in Soviet-American relations and Russian studies. Sponsored jointly by the student Conservative Society and the Intercollegiate Society of Individualists, the seminar will be attended by representatives from some 35 eastern seaboard colleges and universities.

Speakers will be Dr. Lev E. Dobriansky, professor of economics at Georgetown University; Dr. Richard F. Staar, professor of political science at Emory University; and Dr. James W. Wiggins, professor of sociology at Emory University.

Dr. Dobriansky, who is a strategy staff member of the American Security Council, will speak in Bradley Hall at 8 p.m. Friday on "What Americans Don't Know About Russia."

He is chairman of the National

Captive Nations Committee and has served on the faculty of the National War College. Dr. Dobriansky was also vice chairman of the Republican 1959 Task Force on National Security and Peace. An extensive traveller in Europe and the Far East, he has written over 200 articles on the Soviet Union.

The public is welcome to attend the evening lecture.

Also open to the public is the Saturday morning session at which Dr. Staar will present a talk on "Soviet-American Relations." The lecture will be given at 9 a.m. and at 10:30 a.m. in the administration building.

Dr. Staar, a native of Warsaw, has been with the Central Intelligence Agency and the Department of State, and worked with Radio Free Europe in Munich, Germany for a year.

Dr. Wiggins also will speak at 9 and at 10:30 a.m. in the administration building on "Central Planning and the Total State." He is director of the national study, "A Profile of the Aging, U.S.A."

Following lunch will be a meeting of the seminar representatives to discuss the conservative club program.

The Intercollegiate Society of Individualists was founded in 1953 as an educational organization concerned with liberty, private property and limited government. There are over 200 affiliated conservative clubs among colleges and universities in the

Dr. Lev E. Dobriansky

Dr. Richard F. Staar